Cherry Mae L. Limbaco, Ph.D., CESO V

Schools Division Superintendent

Division of Cagayan de Oro City

Upper Balulang, Cagayan de Oro City

Dear Dr. Limbaco,

Lasallian Greetings of Peace!

In line with The Career and Counseling Center's CALMa (Career and Lasallian-life Management activities) program and in celebration of the 15th Lasallian Family Days, Lasallian Mission Services is proud to invite the schools within Cagayan de Oro City in the Career Guidance e-Caravan Year 2 with the theme, Moving Forward Together. The third wave of the e-Caravan will be on March 29-30, and April 2, 2022 and will be streamed via Facebook Live.

The Career Guidance e-Caravan aims to bring participants to a dialogue on how to get started on assessing learners' interests, abilities, and values for an ideal academic program, strategies in evaluating fit for a particular career path, learn what skills and experiences that learners' future employers will expect them to have as well as the opportunities available to gain those skills and experiences while building a professional network they will need in the world of work.

Our renowned speaker is Ms. Vanessa L. Agriz, MA, RGC, RPm, CMHFR, known for implementing various services such as assessment, counseling, consultation, placement, and developing various programs gearing towards mental health and well-being. Ms. Agriz is a former Coordinator at the Career and Placement Office of De La Salle - College of Saint Benilde, current Guidance Counselor at St. Paul College of Makati, current Corporate Secretary of the Philippine Association of Counselor Education, Research and Supervision, and Secretary of the Career Development Association of the Philippines.

The e-Caravan will be divided into three sessions:

1. A Glimpse of My Chosen Career in the New Normal for Grade 12 students, on March 29, 2022 at 3:00 PM;
2. Choosing the Right Track for My Dream Job for Grade 10 students, on March 30, 2022 at 3:00 PM; and
3. Guiding Your Children Towards their Dream Job for Parents, on April 2, 2022 at 9:30 AM.

Each session is estimated to last for 40 minutes to an hour, which includes an open forum/question and answer portion. Educators, guidance counselors/officers, and school administrators are also welcome to join any of the three sessions. The registration fee is FREE inclusive of e-certificates and exciting surprises. To register, please click on this link <http://bit.ly/CGEC2Reg> before March 28, 2022. For other concerns, please get in touch with the undersigned. Mobile number: 0909-919-0756, Email address: cccbed@lsu.edu.ph. See you then!

Respectfully,

Meko Zymer Josue

Coordinator, Career Guidance e-Caravan Year 2

Speaker's Biographical Note

VANESSA L. AGRIZ, MA, RGC, RPm, CMHFR, CEIP
Guidance Counselor, St. Paul College of Makati

Currently, Isay Agriz works as a Guidance Counselor implementing various services such as assessment, counseling, consultation, and placement; she also develops various programs gearing towards mental health and well-being.

She engages in various professional development and volunteer opportunities. She is one of the Counselors under Intercare Chiropractic Center, Inc., and a volunteer under Mental Health First Response wherein she provides emotional peer support and other mental health support services. She also volunteers under InTouch Community Services, Inc. in various capacities. Additionally, she is the Partner for Social Engagement and Impact in L.E.A.D. to Thrive Leadership and Management Consultancy. She also teaches part-time at Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Maynila under its Psychology Department.

She recently retired as Coordinator at the Career and Placement Office of De La Salle-College of Saint Benilde. As Coordinator, she facilitated the transition of Benildean graduates to their professional careers and networked with various industry, government and organization stakeholders to foster career entry of graduates. She provided services such as career coaching, conduct of seminars and workshops for career awareness and life skills development, as well as promoting inclusion in education and in the workplace for differently-abled talents.

In her more than 10 years of Human Resource experience, she has played several HR supervisory roles in various major players in the education, manpower, and retail industries. In addition, she delves into research in her field of specialization. She has been tasked to coach employees, provide employee counseling for productivity and engagement, and promote well-being of employees.

A psychologist by profession, Isay took her Bachelor's degree at Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Maynila, where she also completed the academic requirements for an MA in Psychology degree. In April of 2018, she finished her MA in Counseling at De La Salle University-Manila. She also completed the Filipino Sign Language Learning Program from Benilde.

Last September 2018, she passed the licensure examination for Guidance Counselors garnering the Top 9 spot.

Last November 2020, Isay is elected as Corporate Secretary of Philippine Association for Counselor Education, Research and Supervision. Concurrently, Isay serves as Secretary of Career Development Association of the Philippines. She previously served as Secretary of the organization, as well as the post of Board of Director where she was tasked as Assistant Treasurer. She is a Regular member of Psychological Association of the Philippines and Philippine Guidance and Counseling Association. She is a member of Asia Pacific Career Development Association, Career Development Network and Association of Placement Practitioners of Colleges and Universities.

A life-long learner, Isay has been sharing her know-how in financial literacy through the Cashflow 101 seminar workshop. She also is passionate in promoting her advocacy for career development and mental health in the Philippines.
