Sir:

Greetings!

The Dawani Women's Choir, the first resident all-female choir of the University of the Philippines College of Music, believes in giving back to the community and engaging various audiences through its innovative programming. In line with their fifth year, this season's major concert entitled "MAESTRA: A celebration of women in music", was recently concluded at the National Museum of Natural History in Manila. An advocacy concert in celebration of women's strength throughout the centuries, the program featured works by women composers, highlighting their lives and significant contributions to the music scene.

In hopes of extending our reach in the promotion of culture and the arts, we envision MAESTRA to be brought to a 3-leg regional city tour from January 31 to February 5, 2019. A partnership project between the Dawani Women's Choir and the Xavier University Glee Club to help us realize this vision for our Cagayan de Oro leg from February 3 to 5, 2019.

To this regard, we would like to ask your approval allowing us to invite the teaching and non-teaching personnel of your division and to ask your support to invite the elementary and secondary students especially those who are music enthusiasts to watch the concert at the University Church of Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM. Tickets are sold at a price of P200 and P100 and could be made available anytime for those who will watch the concert.

We would be very much grateful to have your presence in this momentous and memorable event. We hope for your favorable response upon this request. Should you have any concerns and clarifications, please feel free to contact these following details 0916-860-1730 or through my e-mail address civ827@yahoo.com.

May the intercession of the Almighty God bring forth to you and your family the blessings of peace and unity.

Ad Majorem dei Gloriam,

VIC ANGELO G ATILANO
Music Director
