NHQ CIRCULAR NO. 31
Series of 2021

TO : REGIONAL EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS AND COUNCIL EXECUTIVES

RE : THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH'S INTERNATIONAL AWARD FOUNDATION – ONLINE GOLD AWARD CELEBRATION

DATE : 20 SEPTEMBER 2021

The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award Foundation invites once again the Girl Scouts of the Philippines to the Online Gold Award Celebration to be held on October 7, 2021 at 1:00 pm UTC (Philippine Time: 9:00 o'clock in the evening).

This special virtual event will bring all the Independent Award Centers from around the world together for the very first time. It is also an opportunity to come together to celebrate the achievements of young people taking part in the Award all over the world.

The event will be hosted by BBC television presenter, Rhys Stephenson. It will celebrate Award participants, with special recognition for those who have completed their Gold Award over the past year. This event is also a celebration of the whole Award family and is open to all current or prospective Award participants, alumni, as well as parents, staff and volunteers.

In this regard, please submit the names, if there are any, of Girl Scouts who have completed their Gold Award between January 2020 and Thursday 7 October 2021. Please complete the form attached together with a photo of each Gold Awardee in GSP Official Uniform and email to nhqprogram@gmail.com on or before Wednesday 22nd September. They are expected to attend the ceremony and be in their GSP Official Uniform.

To qualify for the Gold Award:

1. Must be GSP active member aged 16 years old above and under 25 years old
2. GSP and DoE Membership Registration must be prior before January 2020 (kindly send copy of both Membership Registration)
3. Must have completed their online record book, or hard copy record book as proof of their completion of all the required sections between January 2020 to October 7, 2021

To date, the National Headquarters received the registration of six (6) Councils on the Online Record Book.
