Department of Education

Dear Ms. Limbaco:

Greetings in the name of St. Thomas Aquinas!

The College of Education of the Pontifical and Royal University of Santo Tomas will hold the 2nd International Passion for Scholarship And Love for Mission (PSALM) Conference on 17 June 2022, Friday, thru Zoom Video Conferencing. Anchored on the theme "Onward and Upward: Charting the Direction of Teacher Education During and Beyond COVID-19", this year's event has the following objectives:

1. Discuss the current epidemiological status of the COVID-19 pandemic and its implication for educational delivery;
2. Present the latest empirical findings on curriculum and instruction for teacher education that may inform policy and practice among TELs and educational institutions; and
3. Build a network of teachers, administrators, academics, researchers, and policy-makers pursuing a common passion for scholarship and love for mission as educators.

The International PSALM Conference for Teacher Education and Formation is an annual commitment of the UST College of Education as a CHED Center of Excellence in Teacher Education in contributing to raising the quality of teacher education, both in the in- and pre-service levels, through the presentation and discussion of the latest empirical findings that may inform policy and practice in the field; sharing of the best practices in teacher training that may provide valuable benchmarks for teacher education institutions (TEIs); and strengthening of the network of TELs, not only in the Philippines but in the globe, in the pursuit of the common passion for scholarship and love for mission as educators.

In line with this, may we respectfully invite you and the teachers of your division/school to the 2nd International PSALM Conference? The event will be livestreamed thru the official Facebook page of the UST College of Education, <https://www.facebook.com/USTEducation>. Participation is FREE.

Attached herewith is the tentative program for your reference. For questions, please contact education@ust.edu.ph.

Thank you very much and we hope to see you in the conference.

Sincerely, Atun Ringgo Reyes
