Title of Program	International Seminar Workshop on Building Sustainable High Performance Organization
Theme	Culture of Excellence: Creating A High Performance Organization
Date of training	January 29, 30 and February 5, 2022
Platform	Zoom Conferencing System and Google Classroom
Program description	In compliance with DEPED Order no. 40 s.2020 or Implementation of Learning and Development for Non-Teaching Personnel in the Department of Education in View of the COVID-19 Pandemic, the Center for Human Research and Development Foundation Inc. would like to invite your non-teaching personnel to our incoming professional development program designed for them. The only way to keep teams focused on your organizational goals during times of change is to create a culture where every individual feels in their very core that focusing on the highest aspirations and meaningful goals of the company is more important than the uncomfortable feelings created by change. This professional development program is especially designed to ignite the passion of every non-teaching personnel to be deeply aligned with organizational goals of the Department of Education and respond to the diverse needs of their respective stakeholders.
Program Outcomes	1. Explain how non-teaching staff/ government employees make a difference in servicing clients - both internal and external, 2. Deduce the need for 'change' through program that will help an organization function better by creating a one minute paper, 3. Discuss updates and implications of data privacy law and how it contributes to effective functioning of an organization, 4. Create personal and professional development plan on the areas of career, family, social and spiritual life, and 5. Develop mastery of roles and responsibilities focused on high performance in the workplace.
Plenary Sessions
1. Neuro-Linguistic Programming	Neuro-linguistic programming (NLP) is a psychological approach that involves analyzing strategies used by successful individuals and applying them to reach a personal goal. It relates thoughts, language, and patterns of behavior learned through experience to specific outcomes.
2. Culture and Mindset: Building Capacity for Success	The first step to building a corporate culture that will drive a high performance organization is to create a mindset that will engage and align every employee with your vision, mission and values, and leave them speaking a com-mon language of excellence. This session aims to build a new capacity for growth. It will focus on how employees will think in more creative and innovate ways, and will develop the tolerance to continue to move forward despite challenges, change and potential distractions.
3. Ensuring the data privacy in the workplace	The National Privacy Commission (NPC) is calling on public and private organizations to ensure protection of personal data when implementing work-from-home schemes for their employees during the coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) pandemic.

4. Unfolding Skills to Create a Better You	In a Culture of Excellence, employees feel that what they are working on is meaningful, significant, and purpose-based. Everyone concerned is highly inspired by the common purpose, which becomes the driving force behind everything that they do.
5. Building a Sustainable High Performance Organization	This session aims to help employees develop the flexibility and resilience to deal with change, challenge and uncertainty that may arise along the way. By doing this will ensure that they are ready to learn, absorb and retain new skills and stay focused on their goals. Finally, your leaders need to embrace practical coaching for excellence skills to sustain your momentum over the long term. Without this internal leadership and coaching capacity in place you will resort to the old pattern of finding short term solutions that fall by the wayside as employees slip back to their old habits.
Workshops
1. Balancing Work and Family Life (Gender & Development)	Work-life balance is the relationship between your work and the other important things in your life, like your family, sport and social life, household chores, volunteer commitments and so on. If you feel like you have enough time for all of these things in your life, you probably have a good work-life balance.
2. Spirituality in the Workplace	A framework of organizational values evidenced in the culture that promote employees' experience of transcendence through the work process, facilitating their sense of being connected to others in a way that provides feelings of completeness and joy
Assessments
Reaction	One minute paper
Learning	Self-assessment rubric
Behavior	Professional Development Plan
Result	Post-conference survey
