GREETINGS!

The Inner Wheel Clubs of West Cagayan de Oro is holding an annual competition of "Ako Ay Pilipino", a national level essay writing competition among senior students in public schools.

The objective of this project is to heighten citizenship awareness in our youth thereby promoting love of country, patriotism, pride in being a Filipino, respect for elders and authority, emulation of our culture and traditions, appreciation of our cultural heritage, and promotion of friendly competition among our youth.

The Grand Prize of this competition is a four-year scholarship program in any course in any university or college in the Philippines. The recipient of this 4-year college scholarship program is the First Prize Winner of the National Level of the "Ako Ay Pilipino" Contest after besting all the other contestants from the other Districts.

This year, the IWC-West CDO have scheduled the Club Level Competition on October

15, 2022. Whoever will win in the Club Level Competition will compete in the District Level Competition scheduled on November 12, 2022. The winner in the District Level Competition will compete with the other winners from the other districts in the National Level Competition.

In this regard, we would like to invite one (1) representative from each school to join the Club Level Competition on October 15, 2022, Saturday, 8:30am, VIP Hotel, Velez Street, JR. Borja, Cagayan de Oro City.
