The personnel in the list were winners of the illustration categories in the GTA 2023 tasked to finalize the winning storybooks and design the winning manuscripts into an illustrated anthology of children's stories. Also included were the recipients of the Gawad Teodora Alonso and Gawad Fernando Amorsolo Hall of Fame honor roll. They shall have the following terms of reference:

- (1) Attend the onsite workshop and contribute to the realization of objectives;
- (2) Work on individual tasks assigned;
- (3) Accomplish the team outputs and submit the completed draft to the secretariat;
- (4) Treat with confidentiality all data processes during the conduct of the workshops; and
- (5) Submit the required documents necessary for participation in the workshop.

The expected outputs of the identified personnel are the following:

- (1) Final and ready-to-print version of the winning storybooks of GTA 2023;
- (2) Final draft of the illustrated compilation of winning manuscripts in the 4th National Competition on Storybook Writing; and
- (3) Drafts of the illustrated compilation of winning manuscripts in the GTA 2023.

The winning manuscripts in the GTA 2023 Categories 2, 4, and 6 were not illustrated. As such, they will be designed as an illustrated compilation of children's stories intended for habit and hobby reading. The two compilations will be utilized for the enrichment components of the National Reading Program and as supplementary reading resources for Catch-Up Fridays, National Learning Camp, and other reading and literacy programs of the Department.

Travel expenses of the identified personnel were downloaded to their respective Regional Offices, while board and lodging will be charged against funds downloaded to DepEd Region IVB MIMAROPA as host of GTA 2024. In cases where the downloaded funds fail to cover the total expenses, it is requested that these be augmented with available local funds. All expenses are subject to existing auditing and accounting rules and regulations of the government.
