These copies will be showcased during the Reading Exhibit and used for the Onsite Storytelling Contest.

Logistics and Other Details

Travel expenses for the participants are requested to be charged against available local funds and/or charged to the balance of the Program Support Funds for the Conduct of GTA Development and Harvesting of Storybooks (DM-CT-2024-06, dated June 4, 2024), or any surplus funds from activities for learning resources that allow expenditure of such. The same is requested for the amount necessary for the printing of ReadEx Picks entries.

Food and accommodation will be covered by BLR funds downloaded to the host region, subject to standard government accounting rules and regulations. Additionally, this Office kindly requests the provision of applicable leave credits or compensatory time-off for the attending personnel during local holidays.

Program Highlights

Attached is the Indicative Program Matrix, which outlines the four-day event to be attended by winners, invited guests, literary figures, and officials of DepEd and its attached agency National Council for Children's Television. The dress code for the highlight ceremony is Filipiniana, and the venue will showcase Karagatan as motif.

Should you have any questions or require further assistance, please feel free to contact us via email at blr.creatives@deped.gov.ph, copy furnished blr.lrp@deped.gov.ph (attention Jejomar Alda of Learning Resources Production Division) or by telephone at (02) 8631-4985.

Updates and additional information may also be found on the Facebook page of the National Competition on Storybook Writing, or by searching #KuwentoNgBayanKo.

Thank you very much for your ongoing support and dedication to this harvesting program for a healthy reading community.

Very truly yours,

ARIZ DELSON ACAY D. CAWILAN
Director IV
