Title of Training Program	RSPC Qualifiers' Enhancement Training
Description	The Campus Journalism Act of 1991 aims to promote the development and growth of campus journalism to strengthen ethical values, encourage critical and creative thinking, and develop the moral character and personal discipline of Filipino youth. The law upholds and protects the freedom of the press even at the campus level and mandates the state to undertake various programs and projects aimed at improving the journalistic skills of students concerned and promoting responsible and free journalism Staging press conferences from the school to the national level provides the learners the avenue to: 1. Demonstrate an understanding of journalism through skill execution in various platforms (i.e. print, broadcast, online) 2. Recognize the role of journalism in advocating for social consciousness and environmental awareness. 3. Promote fair and ethical media use as tenets of responsible journalism. 4. Foster camaraderie and enrich learning experiences through healthy and friendly competitions by providing the learners opportunities to use the skills learned in campus journalism for their future careers. In pursuit of continuous improvement, enhancement training for the RSPC qualifiers is believed to elevate their competencies in various journalistic endeavors.
