International Search for Outstanding Values Educator 2024

1. We are pleased to announce the commencement of the International Search for Outstanding Values Educator 2024, an initiative aimed at recognizing and honoring educators who exemplify the highest standards of values-based education. This prestigious recognition is sponsored by the Association for Living Values Education International (ALIVE) through our Living Values Education (LVE) program.
2. The International Search for Outstanding Values Educator 2024 seeks to identify and celebrate educators worldwide who have demonstrated exceptional commitment to integrating and promoting values in their educational practices. This initiative underscores the importance of nurturing values such as respect, responsibility, integrity, compassion, and cooperation in the educational environment.
3. This search is open to all educators, regardless of nationality or educational level, who have shown innovative and effective methods in imparting values in education. Eligible candidates may include teachers, school administrators, curriculum developers, and education policy advocates who have made significant contributions to values education.
4. For inquiries please contact Mr. Brian U. Bantilan, through his mobile number + 639752390501.
5. For guidance and information.
