Guidelines for the World Teachers' Day Performer

1. Selection Process

- The Performer for World Teachers' Day is selected based on their outstanding talent and prior achievements, specifically as a finalist or winner in a national talent competition.
- This performer is excluded from the Search for Talentadong Guro to focus solely on showcasing their talent during the WTD.

2. Performance Requirements

- Duration: The performance should not exceed 5 minutes.
- Content: The performance can be in the form of dance, song, or any performance act.
- Language: Any language may be used, provided the message is clear and resonates with the theme.

3. Monitoring and Progress Reports

- The performer must provide regular progress reports to the Public Schools District Supervisor (PSDS) or the designated event coordinator.

4. Attire and Presentation

- The attire should be appropriate and reflective of the performance theme.
- Any props or special effects to be used during the performance must be approved by the organizing committee.
