All Division Office Personnel
This Division

1. Relative to DM No. 71 s.2024, all Division Office personnel and competing schools are hereby informed of the conduct of Expressions of L.O.V.E.: A Senior High School Expo on February 14, 2024, 9:00 AM at the Division Office Grounds. This activity is a celebration of the different expressions of creativity, talent and skills of our Senior High School students – showcasing their L.O.V.E.: Learning, Opportunities, Value, and Enhancement.

Learning – This activity will showcase the learning output of students.

Opportunities – Through this activity, the students will be given a platform to showcase their skills and talents on a division level.

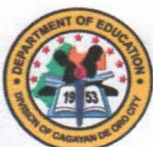

Value – Showing the students that their output are valued and are given recognition can help boost their self-confidence.

Enhancement – This activity can provide a healthy and constructive avenue for students and teachers to further improve their skills and output.

2. This program will be spearheaded by the SGOD Team in coordination with the Education Program Supervisors for MAPEH and TLE/SHS and Public Schools District Supervisors.

3. All Public Schools District Supervisors are directed to create a music group/band to represent their district for Teachers' Gig – a song competition. This band shall compose of not more than five (5) teachers per district. Below is the criteria for this competition:

Musical Skill	40%
