Greetings!

I am writing to respectfully endorse the request /invitation of the ASPO- Ball Club to conduct a Basketball and Volleyball League within the premises of Bayabas National High School during this summer as part of our School Sports Development of our students.

This initiative aims to promote physical fitness, sportsmanship, teamwork, and community engagement among the youth. The Ball Club has expressed their commitment to ensuring the safety, orderliness, and proper supervision of all activities, in coordination with our school administration.

We believe this league will not only provide productive and meaningful activities for our students and local community but will also strengthen partnerships that support holistic youth development. In view of this, we are seeking your kind approval and endorsement of this worthwhile activity.

Thank you for your continued support and consideration.

Respectfully yours,

DANNY A. LABADAN
