Dr. Roy Angelo E. Gazo, PhD
Schools Division Superintendent
Department of Education, Cagayan de Oro Division,
Cagayan de Oro City

Dear Dr. Gazo,

Blessings of peace!

First is an update the Archdiocese of Cagayan de Oro Campus Ministry Association (ACCMA). As you knew it, ACCMA is an organization in the Archdiocese of Cagayan de Oro whose members are public school teachers. Its goal is to conduct spiritual formation activities in the various public schools' campuses. These past months, we have continued our implementation of the 1-day recollections to several public secondary schools in the division of Cagayan de Oro. We thank the support of our school principals for welcoming us into the school campuses for these recollections. Aside from recollections with students, we continue with the personal development of our teacher members.

For this school year, we are set to send select teachers for some human development seminars related to our ministry. It is ACCMA who will shoulder the tuition of these participants and their counterpart will be the airfare and allowance.

Seminar details:

Summer training program on Spiritual direction facilitated by the Center for Ignatian Spirituality.

Date: April 1 – April 5, 2025 (4 working days)

Venue: Sacred Heart Novitiate, Novaliches, Quezon City

Participants: 1. Remie Marie C. Yamit City High School
2. Maritess G. Salan City High School

Since DepEd will benefit these trainings of our teachers, may we request that these two teachers will be excused from their regular classes and that this will be considered as an official activity?

Thank you.

Respectfully yours,

Ms. Nancy L. Cairel
ACCMA coordinator
